

GREATER OKLAHOMA CITY

A BETTER LIVING. A BETTER LIFE.

OKLAHOMA CITY: A PROVEN MARKET FOR SUCCESS

Greater Oklahoma City has demonstrated for decades that its world-class business climate, reliable workforce, and diverse real estate options give companies an edge against their competition.

Whether it is an expansion to introduce or enhance lines of business or being identified as the pilot site for innovative technology, the Greater Oklahoma City region has a proven track record of supporting the success of headquarters and shared services operations.

Paycom is an HR and payroll technology company with a nearly $11 billion market cap. Founded (1998) and headquartered in Oklahoma City, Paycom currently employs 4,000+ Oklahomans. As part of the S&P 500, Paycom demonstrates its strength as one of the largest publicly traded companies in the country.

Hobby Lobby, headquartered in OKC, employs more than 6,500 people. The arts & crafts company recently expanded its IT, HR, and distribution functions due to the uptick in e-commerce.

American Fidelity provides group and individual life, health, and annuity services. Founded in Oklahoma City in 1960, the company currently employs nearly 2,000 on its headquarters campus.

Love's Travel Stops is the nation's leading travel stop network. Headquartered in OKC, the company remains family-owned and operated and employs 2,000+ people in the community.

Oklahoma City businesses have access to 40,000+ professional services workers in the region.

OKLAHOMA CITY: A PROVEN MARKET FOR SUCCESS

Dell has been part of Oklahoma City's shared services sector since 2004. The OKC team of 1,400+ focuses on business-to-business sales and providing technical support to enterprise clients, including Boeing and the Department of Defense.

Federal Aviation Administration's (FAA)

Enterprise Services Center employs nearly 1,000 and provides IT application services, tech, data center and cybersecurity support, as well as travel, wireless, project management, and financial services support to several federal agencies.

Costco's shared services center employs 1,300+ in OKC to assist its travel and e-commerce business units with customer service and technical support.

Advanced Call Center Technologies (ACT), an international company, provides multi-channel customer service support, fraud, and dispute management and claim processing for customers primarily in the financial industry. The company has more than 10,000 employees across the U.S. and recently expanded into the Greater OKC Region, where it is expected to employ 770 people.

Heartland Payment Systems, a Global Payments company, is a publicly traded and leading worldwide provider of payment technology and software solutions, including credit card processing, payroll services, point of sale solutions, and lending. Heartland currently employs 700 in Oklahoma City.

CACI's Shared Services Center in Oklahoma City employs 400 people that support the company's 23,000 staff and operations in 155 countries. It provides information solutions and services in support of national security missions and government transformation for intelligence, defense, and federal civilian customers.

TTEC is a global company that employs more than 50,000 employees on six continents. It primarily supports insurance companies as a third-party back office contact center. It currently employs 200+ in Oklahoma City and values easy access to military and military-attached talent in the region.

180 Medical, whose employees boast a 94% Net Promoter

Score, employs nearly 400 in the Greater OKC region. The company supports the wholesale distribution of surgical and medical instruments.

FOR MORE INFORMATION CONTACT

Kim Wilmes, VP of Economic Development Program, Greater Oklahoma City Chamber
(405) 297-8945 | kwilmes@okcchamber.com | www.greateroklahomacity.com/sharedservices